

The Zoo

Vowel Teams

Book #5

Additional Fluency Practice with Decodable Text

Decodable Text Concepts & Skills:

- Long-u Vowel Teams: _ew, _ue , _ui
- Find vowel patterns visually and use known words to read new words
- Read controlled passages with fluency
- Comprehension check with factual and inferential text-dependent questions

Name:

Date:

Read the story.

Draw what happened!

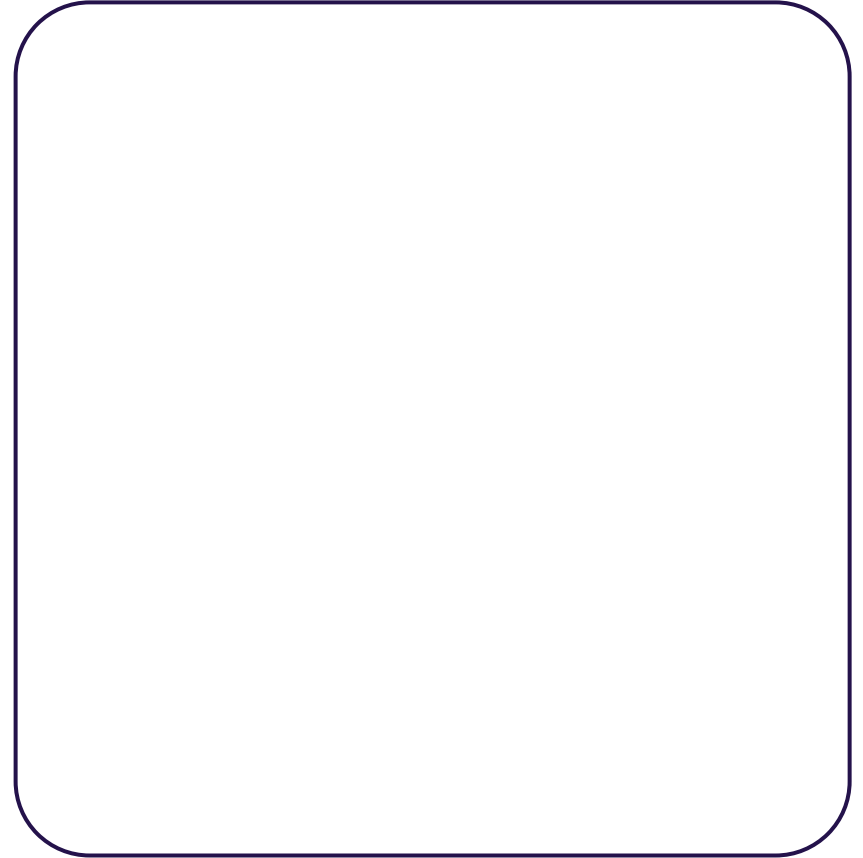

Drew and Sue rode a big blue bus to the new zoo with a guide. Sue has glue on her new suit and then spills red fruit juice on it too! They see a few apes chew on a sweet, ripe fruit by a tree.

Read the story.

Draw what happened!

The crew gave them a fun clue to play a new game. The class ate some more stew, and drank more juice. Drew yells, "It's time! Let's use that clue!" Sue knew this trip was the best one yet!

Where did the class go?

What did Drew and Sue see at the zoo?

Read each sentence.

Write the correct word.

I stick the piece to the wall with the _____.
(glue/glew)

The plane _____ from here to there.
(flew/flue)

“Oh no!” my dad yells when he dumps his stew on his new _____.
(suit/sewt)

Write a sentence for each word.

true

chew

Read the following sentences.

Circle the correct choice.

What color was the bus they took to the zoo?

- a) Red
- b) Blue
- c) Green
- d) Yellow

What did the crew give the kids to drink?

- a) Milk
- b) Water
- c) Fruit juice
- d) Tea

What did the apes chew on?

- a) gum
- b) sticks
- c) fruit
- d) chips

Fill in the blank:

The crew waits with a smile, they had a _____ day for us!

Read the word.

Write two words from the story that share the same vowel team.

Example:

- suit → ui

Words that share vowel team: fruit and juice

Your turn:

- Drew → ew

Words that share vowel team: _____ and

- blue → ue

Words that share vowel team: _____ and
